Musical Visuals: An Investigation of the Metal Band Logo

Vitus Vestergaard, PhD, Assistant Professor of Media Studies, Institute for the Study of Culture, University of Southern Denmark

Abstract: The design of metal band logos has evolved into a visually unique style, drawing upon design styles such as art deco and art nouveau. The logos reflect the same metal aesthetics that can be found in metal songs, however. During this seminar the intimate connection between logo and music will be discussed and substantiated by a range of examples.
