

Mind over Metal

UPDATES

December 3-4, 2015 - Odense, Denmark

A conference organized by the research program The Performances of Everyday Living, Dept. for the Study of Culture, University of Southern Denmark (SDU) at Odense with the support of The Danish Council for Independent Research | Humanities

September 28, 2015

Announcement of conference and call for papers. For call for papers, please see http://soundmusicresearch.org/mom/Call\_for\_papers.pdf. A poster is available at http://soundmusicresearch.org/mom/PLAKAT\_280915.pdf.

September 29, 2015

You can now register directly for the conference at the link <http://webpay.sdu.dk/system/metal>. It only takes a moment. Please do not be concerned that it says "webpay" in the link; that is part of the standard university conference URL.

October 8, 2015

SDU homepage for Mind over Metal finished and available here.

October 20, 2015

Call-for-papers closed 12 noon GMT.

October 27/28, 2015

Peer reviewing of abstracts from CFP concluded.

October 27/28, 2015

Notice of peer review results for paper abstracts submitted in response to CFP sent out.

November 3, 2015

All submitters whose abstracts were accepted on the basis of the CFP have either confirmed or disconfirmed their participation in Mind over Metal. There will be 17 CFP-generated presentations divided into two lines of eight parallel sessions each day. This, in addition to the 8 keynote presentations, brings the total number of presentations to 25 during the two days, so it will be a rich and full conference.

November 9, 2015

Abstracts for all presentations – keynotes and parallel sessions – at Mind over Metal, Dec. 3-4, may now be accessed in an interactive document online by clicking “Conference Information” at www.sdu.dk/mindovermetal. The document is updated regularly. Registration is free, but please register no later than November 19.